Dear Registrar:

Re: Air Passenger Rights v Canadian Transportation Agency, Court File No.: A-102-20

I write in respect of the above noted matter, and further to the Order and Reasons of the Honourable Gleason, J.A. dated June 4, 2021.

Paragraph 2 of the Order provides the Attorney General with the opportunity to make additional submissions to the Court of Appeal in response to the Applicant's submissions on the disclosure issue, including in respect of the Applicant's informal motion of May 12, 2021, to add additional materials in support of the disclosure motion.

In respect of the disclosure motion, the Attorney General adopts and relies on the submissions served and filed by counsel for the Canadian Transport Agency, subject to any further submissions the Court may direct, or allow if so requested in the future.

In respect of the Applicant's May 12, 2021 letter, the Attorney General opposes the attempt to file additional evidence on the motion without regard for the Rules. In addition, for the reasons set out in the submissions of the Agency, the proposed exhibits are neither necessary nor relevant for disposition of the motion.

I trust this addresses the Court's June 4, 2021 Order, and remain available should any further submission be required.

Yours truly,

J. Sanderson Graham
